

Some helpful information regarding paying for college

Scholarships

Scholarship sites allow you to create a profile and introduce you to numerous scholarships, internships, and other college-related info that might be valuable to you.

www.fastweb.com

www.schoolsoup.com

www.salliemae.com

www.zinch.com

www.cappex.com

Here are some other places that you can look for scholarship money:

www.collegeboard.com

www.actstudent.org

Grants & Federal/State Aid

These sites will give you more information on Federal and State student assistance. They will fill you in on the different types of grants and awards potentially available to you, and provide you with all the deadlines and criteria. There is also information about the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid), which you and your parents will need to complete starting in January to apply for federal aid.

www.fafsa.ed.gov

www.studentaid.ed.gov

www.mhec.state.md.us

We will try to reach you as best as we can during the school year to provide you with information that is specific to your decisions about college and scholarship search. Make sure you check back with us periodically, because we always receive new scholarship info or college-related info. We might have something that is pertinent to your situation that we haven't spread the word on yet.

You can email us at the following addresses:

Mr. Kaufman- dan.kaufman@gbcseagles.org judi.vanderhoof@gbcseagles.org

Mrs. Vanderhoof-